Kimberly earned her MFA from Pratt Institute in Brooklyn, NY.
While there, she worked at the Brooklyn Museum of Art as an assistant for the Curator of Contemporary Art.
After teaching at community colleges for several years in Dallas, TX, she moved to Arlington, VA, volunteered at the Smithsonian American Art Museum in the Education Department in Washington DC, worked for a time as an adjunct instructor at Northern Virginia Community College in Arlington, VA, before relocating to Fredericksburg, VA in 2015.

She is a painter, and has exhibited her work nationally and online.
Currently, she works from her Fredericksburg studio. You can see her work at www.kimdinatale.com, and Instagram kmdinatale
All images copyright 2026